

TABLE DES MATIÈRES

Avant-propos	7
I. A general view of the main themes	11
Introduction.....	11
Language as a thematic component.....	13
The derision of learning	14
Sophistry and casuistry	18
Social considerations	19
Love and marriage	20
Men and women	22
The nature and language of love	26
Courtesy	29
II. Dramatic structure.....	35
The general structure.....	35
Theatrical conventions.....	36
Place and time.....	36
A few remarks about Shakespeare's dramatic skill.....	39
The pace of the dialogue	41
The plot	41
Plotting and counter-plotting	42
The vis comica	43
Stage business.....	45
Irony.....	46
Moral blackmail as a dramatic mainspring.....	47
III. Verse and prose.....	49
General data.....	49
Metre and rhythm.....	50
Masculine and feminine lines or endings	55
Trochaic rhythm	56
Diaereses and other phonetic variations	56
The sounding of the ed desinence	57
Elisions, syncopations, synaereses.....	58
Run-on lines	59
Rhymed verse.....	61
Doggerel	63
Lyrical insertions.....	64
Alliterations	65
Prose	66

IV. Language and style	69
Shakespeare's English.....	69
Conceits	71
Patterned speech	72
Rhetoric.....	74
Wordplay.....	75
Antitheses.....	79
Oxymorons	82
Tropes	82
Metonymies.....	85
Hypallages.....	88
V. Imagery	91
Nature, vegetation	92
Physical images, the body, health and disease	93
Food.....	94
Animals	96
Light, fire, stars, weather, seasons, the universe	99
Metals, minerals, jewels.....	101
Music	102
Houses, clothes, fabrics, tools.....	103
War	106
Human activities, work, archery, sports	108
Allegories	108
Mythology and Biblical lore.....	109
The significance of the last song	110
Synaesthesia	110
VI. The characters and what they stand for	113
Ferdinand, King of Navarre	115
Berowne.....	117
Dumaine and Longaville.....	119
The French Princess.....	119
Rosaline, Maria and Katherine	120
Boyet.....	121
Holofernes.....	121
Don Adriano de Armado	123
Jaquenetta	126
Moth	126
Costard.....	126
Nathaniel.....	127
Anthony Dull.....	128
Marcade	128
VII. Essay: Art and artifice in Love's Labours Lost	129
Bibliographie	141