

A2-B1

ENGLISH GRAMMAR

with Anglo-Saxon cultural stories

Grammaire anglaise en contexte à travers
la culture anglo-saxonne

Sylvie Cortès

Illustrations de Begoña Pucheu Barcelo

ellipses

Table des matières

Avant-propos	3
First Things first...	7
Part 1. Noun-related	11
1. Sacagawea	13
2. Artificial intelligence	17
3. Pele & Namaka	21
4. William Wallace	25
5. Sapphires in Sri Lanka	29
6. The story of the golden carp	33
7. Zheng he's junks	37
8. Creole	41
9. Robin Hood	45
10. The Orient Express	49
11. Do you know why many names of places in California are spanish?	53
12. Do you know why Dutch is spoken in South Africa?	57
13. Fair trade	61
14. Australian dreamtime	65
15. The Titanic	69
Part 2. Verb-related	73
1. The big five in South Africa	75
2. Curry	79
3. Calamity Jane	83
4. Toussaint Louverture	87
5. Atlantis	91
6. Jack the Ripper	95
7. Money	99
8. The Navajos	103
9. Hamburgers	107

Part 3. Tense-related	111
1. English breakfast	113
2. Roses in Kenya	117
3. Alternative food	121
4. The treaty of Waitangi	125
5. The Union Jack	129
6. Valetta	133
7. Highland Games	137
8. Navajo codes on Iwo Jima	141
9. Oliver Cromwell	145
10. The West Indies	149
Part 4. Sentence-Related	153
1. Irish stout	155
2. Dracula	159
3. What do you know about Thanksgiving?	163
4. Kokopelli	167
5. Amazing Canada!	171
6. The Loch Ness monster	175
7. Tutankhamun & Edward Carter	179
Part 5. Link-word-related	183
1. Halloween	185
2. Christopher Columbus and the cannibals...	189
3. Do you know why... There is a dragon on the welsh flag?	193
4. Tea culture in Sri Lanka	197
Part 6. Irregular verb-related	201
1. The Vikings	207
2. The stolen generations	211
3. Commonwealth	215
CORRECTIONS	219